

Wonderin' Where It's Gonna End

Bobby Darin

I guess you're wonderin' where it's gonna end
The fightin' and the tears can't last forever and again
The hopin' for love to rise from ashes is a dream
That's only dust... for both of us

And I guess you're waiting for the proper time
When hopefully your eyes are lookin' far away from mine
You wouldn't have to say too much
A simple sort of line would be enough... or much too much

I will save you all the trouble
Of your thinkin' what to say
'Cause I cannot close my eyes to what I find

And if you cannot see the sunset
Then I'll have to lead the way
And I think I see the dawn's light in my mind
And I think I see you fadin' far behind

I guess you're wonderin' where it's gonna end
The fightin' and the tears can't last forever and again
The hopin' for love to rise from ashes is a dream
That's only dust... for both of us

And I think I see the dawn's light in my mind
And I think I see you fading far behind
And I think I see you fading far behind
