

Blue Days, Black Nights

Bobby Vee

Blue tears keep on fallin', for you dear
Now you're gone
My heart keeps on calling for you dear
And you alone

Memories of you make me sorry
I gave you reason to doubt me
But now you're gone and I am left here all alone
With blue memories, I think of you

I didn't realize I would miss you
The way I do
And now somehow I know I will pay
For the times I have made you blue
