

Hello Loneliness

Bobby Vinton

I'm walking hand-in-hand with loneliness (Loneliness)

I miss her smile (Loneliness)

Her gentle touch (Loneliness)

It's plain to see she's gone from me, her eyes have told me so

And now I know it's time to go, hello loneliness

I'm walking hand-in-hand with loneliness (Loneliness)

Why go on walking side-by-side with ugliness

And watch a smile that tries to hide her loneliness

She's far away and so I say goodbye to happiness

The tenderness of her caress, hello loneliness

I'm walking hand-in-hand with loneliness (Loneliness)

I'm walking hand-in-hand with loneliness (Loneliness)
