

Never Let Nothing Get the Best of You

Bobby Womack

Wuh!

What an outburst

I feel like I'm gonna reach out to such honesty

You're feelin' down, I wanna lift you up

I wanna take ya

Take ya just a little bit higher (well...)

I'm gonna set your zone

Just let me let me set your zone on fire

I'll be groovin' (yeah!)

If anybody wanna find the grooves

Then all you have to do, is lift up your brothers and sisters and say: "Oh y eah!" (Oh yeah!)

I think you can say it just a little bit louder (oh yeah!)

All you have to do, is lift up your brothers and sisters and say: "Oh yeah!"
(Oh yeah!)

Don't fight it

Don't you fight this feeling that we got

Don't fight it

Hey, hey, hey, hey

Don't fight it

Listen to me now...

My best friends or me brother

Stop my hand

Lovin' my woman under cover

Ain't that a shame?

And I'll always fool a child

Ego trippin' through his guilty shifty eyes

But time, time is always changing

Your lie -sometimes- needs re-arranging

To changing

Never let- nothing get the best of you

That's what I wanna tell you

Never let -hmm-mm- nothing get the best of you

Oh-ho-ho

Never let- nothing get the best of you

Yeah, we're going higher (higher!)

Let me take you on up, take you higher

Feelin' good

Hey, hey, hey, hey, feels major

Too many bills to pay

Tryin' to hussle gamin' around without gettin' caught, y'all

I favor do's in the dimmer time

That I'm tryin' to get over on the main line

But I know, time is always changing

Sometimes, your lie needs re-arranging

To changing

Don't lose it (don't lose it)

Don't you lose this feelin' that we got
Don't you got the feelin'?
Don't you lose the feelin' that we got

Hey, break it down now, uh...
Lord have mercy
Ain't never a party
Dude, a friend of mine was sayin': "Ain't never a party, man"

I'm feeling so much better
With everybody dancin' on the floor together
Red, green, yellow, brown, white
I don't care, I don't, as your soul is right
Hey, hey, hey, hey, do it
Oh
Do it!
Nothing? Then I'd better ask you
Tell me why? I'll say it for you

Never let- nothing get the best of you
Oh-ho-ho
Never let- -everybody sing this song with me- nothing get the best of you
Whoo (never let - nothing get the best of you)
I want everybody to sing this song with me, come on!
Never let- nothing get the best of you
