

Still Looking

Bobby Womack

Yeah, I'm looking for love
I'm looking, uh-huh (Yeah)
Looking for love
Looking, I'm looking for true love
Gotta have it, for a love [?]
I'm looking for a love (I'm looking, uh-uh, uh-uh, uh-uh)

My heart is crying, I'm so all alone
I need somebody I can call my own
Yet I know that there's a girl somewhere
Who's oh so lonely for love to share
And I been waiting so patiently
She's gotta be out there somewhere waiting for me
And I, I've been looking
And I, I've been trying
But my heart, it still keeps on crying

I'm looking, still, still looking
For my love, my love
Gotta find, baby
I'm looking, still, still looking
For my love, my love
(Looking for my love, oh, yeah)

I'm so lonely and I think it's unfair
That I can't find love nowhere
All my friends have someone to hold
To keep them warm while it's cold
So I keep waiting patiently
'Cause I know she's out there
Waiting for me
[?] I've been looking
I've been trying
But my heart keep, keeps on crying

I'm looking, still, still looking
For my love, my love
(Got to have my love)
She's out there somewhere
I'm looking, still, still looking
(Gon' keep on looking)
For my love, my love
Need...

Need a love
Still, still looking for my love
(Gonna keep on looking) my love
(Got to have my love)
I've been looking, looking for love
I'm looking, still, still looking
(Gon' keep on looking)
For my love, my love
I've been looking a long time

My heart is crying, I'm so alone
I need somebody I can call my own
Yet I know there's a girl somewhere

Who's oh so lonely for love to share

I'm looking, still, still looking

(So I'm looking, keep on looking)

For my love, my love

(Got to have my love)

Gotta find my baby

I'm looking (I'm looking) still, still looking

(Gonna keep on looking) for my love, my love

My heart is crying (looking)

Still, still looking

For my love (keep on) for my love

I know she's out there somewhere

I'm looking, still, still, looking

(Got to keep on looking) for my love, my love

Been looking a long time

I can't stop

'Cause I know she's out there somewhere

I'm looking, still looking

For my love, oh

I'm looking, still, still looking

For my love (for my love, oh)
