

One In A Million

Bodyjar

Sometimes when I'm driving in my car
I wish that you would take the wheel
But you're not there, Its so unfair
What if I hit that dog again?

Sometimes when I'm lying in my bed
I let those voices in my head
Influence me, to some degree
Now I'm not sure of anything

I wish you knew what I was thinking of
They told me to breathe, They told me to lie down
I figured it out, you're one in a million
'Cause I'm writing the words down
I figure my chances are one in a million
I dont know why, and I dont know where to begin

Sometimes when I'm running out of cash
I'll jump a taxi in a flash
I know its wrong, his light was on
And I just had to get to you

Sometimes when I'm talking on the phone
I get advice from the dial tone
Its nothing knew, and I'm confused
I know i'm losing my mind.

I wish you knew what I was thinking of
They told me to breathe, told me to lie down
I figured it out, you're one in a million
'Cause I'm writing the words down
I figure my chances are one in a million
I dont know why, and I dont know where to begin

Sometimes when I'm driving in my car
I wish that you would take the wheel
But you're not there, its so unfair
What if I fall asleep again?
Sometimes when I'm lying in my bed
I let those voices in my head
Influence me to some degree
Now I'm not sure of anything

I wish you knew what I was thinking of
Can't believe what I've been thinking of
No chance- one in a million
No chance- one in a million
No chance- one in a million
