

Faith & Dedication

Bombshell Rocks

These walls of lies and hatred
I watch them as they fall
I blow them down like a house of cards

Some move with lady luck
I guess I've never heard her call
I think someone put a bullet in her heart

Heartbeat
Faith and dedication
A journey thru a wicked, wicked world
Heartbeat from the bottomline of a nation
Close, close to the heat
So let's fucking burn

These walls of lies and hatred
Is becoming catastrophe
Well watch me as I cross the borderline

A cold wind's blowing thru a city on heat
I see the city freeze
But there's a fire in this heart of mine
