

Raise the Bar

Bonnie Anderson

Uh, uh, uh, uh, oh yeah
Got ya peek on my window singing songs to me
And I don't know
When you think you gonna win me with your solo
Uh, uh, uh, uh
Ya hit me with your break beat
Thinking you can dance your way into the back seat
But I think you better call me a taxi, bye, bye!

Uh, uh, uh, uh, oh, oh
Momma taught me good
To do all I could
Don't settle for no second best!

If you wanna get with me, get with me, get with me
If you want a chance with me, chance with me
You got to raise the bar!
You think you're so hot tonight, hot tonight
But that won't get you home tonight, home tonight
You got to raise the bar!
Uh, uh, uh, uh, oh, oh

You can take your shirt off,
Try to get me drunk, try to kiss me,
Everything is part of a routine I know!
Uh, uh, uh, uh, oh, oh
Boy, you got the mojo, but it's hidden behind your ego
Do you always have to put on such a big show, oh, oh?

Uh, uh, uh, uh, oh, oh
Momma taught me good
To do all I could
Don't settle for no second best!

If you wanna get with me, get with me, get with me
If you want a chance with me, chance with me
You got to raise the bar!
You think you're so hot tonight, hot tonight
But that won't get you home tonight, home tonight
You got to raise the bar!
Uh, uh, uh, uh, oh, oh

Just read the times, you'll pick up lines
Won't work tonight, yeah!
Gotta get my heart beat, beat away
Like a time bomb tic-tic-tic
Wanna feel an explosion, yeah!
Wanna feel an explosion, yeah!
Uh, uh, uh, uh, oh, oh

If you wanna get with me, get with me, get with me
If you want a chance with me, chance with me
You got to raise the bar!
You think you're so hot tonight, hot tonight
But that won't get you home tonight, home tonight
You got to raise the bar!
Uh, uh, uh, uh, oh, oh

Oh, raise the bar, yeah!
