

The Ones I Love

Bonnie Anderson

I've been having dreams that scare me lately
Every one I love is slowly going away
I know I may seem a little crazy
But just maybe, could it be real?
Every single night I wake up screaming
Feeling so alone here, as I lay next to you
I spent a long night searching for the meaning
I got a feeling, could it be real?

Don't know if I'm... I'm strong enough
To watch them fade away
I know that I will be so lost
Just let me die before the ones I love
I gotta die before the ones I love
I gotta die before the ones I love
Die before the...
I gotta die before the ones I love

I know it may seem a little selfish
But I don't wanna be the last one standing alive
I know it might be wrong but I can't help it
Cause I felt it, it seems so real

Don't know if I'm... I'm strong enough
To watch them fade away
I know that I will be so lost
Just let me die before the ones I love
I gotta die before the ones I love
I gotta die before the ones I love
Die before the...
I gotta die before the ones I love

I don't ever wanna see the end
I can't take it, I can't take it
I don't ever wanna see the end
God, let me die before the ones I love
Just let me die before the ones I love
I, I...oh, oh, yeah, ah

I gotta die before the ones I love
...the ones I love
I gotta die before the ones I love
Die before the...
I gotta die before the ones I love
