Final Nail

Born from Pain

Murdered under blackened skies Bleeding from a thousand wounds Crushing through the edge of me Sworn vengeance ripping through As my heart pounds my chest like fists Branded in my soul to burn Biting the hand that feeds The price of lessons learned

I have emerged I will regain There's darker days Coming your way

... Get hammered down

Final nail in your coffin - no more regret Final nail in your coffin - embrace oblivion Final nail in your coffin - no more regret Final nail in your coffin - reborn to conquer
