

Side Tracked

Born Ruffians

You're not the same you
Things are different now
Things are different somehow
But I say
So what, so what
Things are different now
Things are different somehow
Because you got

Side tracked
Side tracked
Side tracked
Side tracked

Now you're nervous that I noticed
Plain to see, it was you
Don't forget that we're friends

Your indifference is boundless
Say the same things, again and again
You got

Side tracked
Side tracked
Side tracked
Side tracked

I already know
You don't have to go
But you do
Begging at your toes
I always end up low
'Cause of you
