

Guardian Angel

Bosson

I'll be watching over you
I'll be watching over you

In the night
When you're asleep
I'm wiping your tears
So secretly

Cause your life will go on, don't look back you are strong
And soon you'll be fine without me
And one day you will rise as the light through the sky
Embraced with your arms around me

I'll be watching over you
You know that I'll be your guardian angel
And I'll be looking out for you
You know that I'll be your guardian angel
And I'll be watching out for you
(I'll be watching over you)
You know that I'll be your guardian angel
And I'll be looking out for you
You know that I'll be your guardian angel
Your guardian angel

In your eyes
I sense your fear
But I'm by your side
I'm always near

Cause your life will go on, don't look back you are strong
And soon you'll be fine without me
And one day you will rise as the light through the sky
Embraced with your arms around me

I'll be watching over you
You know that I'll be your guardian angel
And I'll be looking out for you
You know that I'll be your guardian angel
And I'll be watching out for you
(I'll be watching over you)
You know that I'll be your guardian angel
And I'll be looking out for you
You know that I'll be your guardian angel
Your guardian angel

I'll be watching over you
I'll be watching over you
I'll be watching over you
I'll be watching over you

I'll be watching over you
You know that I'll be your guardian angel
And I'll be looking out for you
You know that I'll be your guardian angel
And I'll be watching out for you
(I'll be watching over you)
You know that I'll be your guardian angel

And I'll be looking out for you
You know that I'll be your guardian angel
Your guardian angel

I'll be watching over you
