

Broken Glass

Boston Manor

Tonight's the night to run a red light
Drive past the words and continue despite
Despite what he said, and the fact that he begged you to swallow your pride
Just this once, just this once

Save tonight
Save the show
Broken Glass and broken bones
Tonight, is all you'll know
Show them how fast you can go
Please slow down, you'll roll us both over
The last that I heard, hell had froze over
You lost your war
You lost your race
They severed your pride
Left a hole in your face

Save tonight
Save the show
Broken glass and broken bones
Tonight, is all you'll know
Show them how fast you can go

Oooh oooh
Oooh oooh
Oooh oooh
Oooh oooh

So just swallow your pride and cover your head
Because you're in the fast lane, to a hospital bed
You risked it all
How fucking dare you
Still show your face
(How fucking dare you)

Oooh oooh
