

Here we are again
A thick brown belt's on my arm again
A table spoon full of tar again
I've let go and it never felt so good
I've sold out my friends
And ruined my life over again
My energy and my money's spent

I can see your halo fall, halo fall
I can see your halo fall
'Cause I had it, then I lost it all

Cold sweats in the morning
Real life's become boring
I've tripped and I'm falling
But I'll stop tomorrow
Can you catch the feeling?
A small wet cloth to stem the bleeding
The scars on my arms are barely healing

I can see your halo fall, halo fall
I can see your halo fall
'Cause I had it, then I lost it all

(Just a quick fix then I'll get clean)
(Just a quick fix then I'll get clean)

I can see your halo fall, halo fall
I can see your halo fall
'Cause I had it, then I lost it all

I can see your halo fall, halo fall
I can see your halo fall
'Cause I had it, then I lost it all
