

If I Can't Have It No One Can

Boston Manor

I am a big man, with lots of big guns
And I don't take shit, don't take shit from anyone
Best get your facts right
Cause I'm never wrong
And even when I am I'm more right than anyone

I always get my way so don't you ever question me
Don't fuck with a man as big as me

If I can't have it then no one can
If I can't have it then no one can
If I can't have it then no one can
I've got everything you wish that you had
(You wish that you had)

I am a big man, I won't say it twice
I like to drink and fuck and fight
Well I never start them, but don't test me son
Look me in the eye or else you'll find yourself in one

I always get my way so don't you ever question me
Don't fuck with a man as big as me

If I can't have it then no one can
If I can't have it then no one can
If I can't have it then no one can
I've got everything you wish that you had
(You wish that you had)

If push came to shove, I wouldn't think twice
I'd slit your throat just to survive
It's kill or be killed, I wouldn't think twice
I'd slit your throat just to survive

If I can't have it then no one can
If I can't have it then no one can
If I can't have it then no one can
I've got everything you wish that you had
(You wish that you had)
