Boston Manor

Slam that door one more time I swear to god
If you want to change the world you're doing it wrong
You always knew just how to get under my skin
It's not that I don't understand, I just don't fit in

Don't call me a freak, I'm just not feeling this
Don't call me a freak, I'm just not feeling this

I don't care what you think, keep it to yourself
Tell me what I want to hear just like everyone else
You always knew just how to get under my skin
It's not that I don't understand, I just don't fit in

Don't call me a freak, I'm just not feeling this
Don't call me a freak, I'm just not feeling this

I promise you you'll be fine, baby give it some time
This could all be a simulation still
I'm still tryna be clean, if you know what I mean
Got to take it one day at a time

I promise you you'll be fine, baby give it some time
This could all be a simulation still
I'm still tryna be clean, if you know what I mean
Got to take it one day at a time

Don't call me a freak, I'm just not feeling this
Don't call me a freak, I'm just not feeling this
(So don't call me a freak, I'll scream it loud on my feet)
I'm just not feeling this
(Gotta take it just one day at a time)
(So don't call me a freak, I'll scream it loud on my feet)
I'm just not feeling this
(Gotta take it just one day at a time)
