

Terrible Love

Boston Manor

I'm an oil stain on the world
I've given up the ghost
I'm lazy & I'm selfish & I've got no self control
I'm becoming an idiot
Never really fitted in
I've spilt my milk & I want more but I just quit drinking

Blowing smoke to fill the void
Tellingtales to pass the time
I want something that I can't have
But if I take it then it's mine
I'm gonna take over the world
And do anything I want
If I ever make it out of here
Because this mirror keeps me warm

You had to crash the party
You had to kill my joy

So tell me you love me
Tell me I'm everything you want
Tell me you need me
Give me everything you've got
So give it all

I'm desperate to be heard but I don't have much to say
I forgot the words, but I'll scream them anyway
Papergenius, plastic pain
Broken windows, acid rain
Let's make small talk, let's make change
As long as you love me, as long as you paid

So tell me you love me
Tell me I'm everything you want
Tell me you need me
Give me everything you've got
So give it all
