

It's been two years, I've not visited once.
There's a reason for that, there's a reason for that
You're still the same man that you always were.
Just a little lost, and a little hurt.

You think you're so far from home,
But you've got places to go.

So leave in my car, or leave in a bag.
Please just leave tonight, and never come back.

Bags on the table and under your eyes
It's the same everyday, it's the same everyday
We've not spoken in weeks, and nothing has changed,
And we're still holding on to our ugly ways.

You think you're so far from home,
But you've got places to go.

So leave in my car, or leave in a bag.
Please just leave tonight and never come back.

And never come back.

I'm so sorry about Mark, I remember that night,
But I've got nothing but love, and you've got nothing but time.
I'll miss you this Christmas, I'll see you next year.
You'll be sorely missed but I just pray you'll still be here.
