

Yes We Can

Boy George

Yes we can...

There's no time for indifference
Don't you know how truly blessed you are?
Mother's tears fall when you hurt yourself
While others wait to watch you fall apart

Please forgive these crimes against myself
And I'll forgive your lack of faith

Yes we can
Make it to the promise land
Yes we can
I know we can
Yes we can
Make it to the promise land
Yes we can
I know we can

Yes we can...

Those you take into your confidence
Can you trust them
Trust them with your heart?
No one knows you like you know yourself
You're in control right now
But you might go too far
Oh yeah I said

Please forgive these crimes against myself
And I'll forgive your lack of faith

Yes we can
Make it to the promise land

Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can
Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can
Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can
Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can

Yes we can
Make it to the promise land
Yes we can
I know we can
Yes we can
Make it to the promise land
Yes we can
I know we can

Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can
Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can
Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can
Yes we can, yes we can, yes we can

Yes we can
