

Anxious but Gradual Rhythms

Boy Hits Car

Life seems
These anxious but gradual rhythms
In this life seems

But you take it all inside your heart
Feeling on a pain that starts
Fucking with those thoughts in head
Standing on this western edge

This is my time
I keep spinning in space
And there ain't no motherfucker
Who could take that away

Our life screams
These anxious but gradual rhythms
All this life seems
Has to be lived to be believed

Come with me, back to the source of
Our mother's voice, we lay
The earth won't wait

She won't wait oh she won't wait
Cause life can't be measured without time
For the sun will rise
No matter what the clock signs

As we walk on through the darkest nights
Coming to your sense of time
Is there nothing left to lose
Dreaming for something new

Come with me, back to the source of
Our mother's voice, we lay
The earth won't wait, in my hand
And we'll [?]
The children of this time instead
No she won't wait

So tell me what you believe
Are we standing in front of these
As life keeps on happening
Oh whoa like a circle

Gets the square, you see
In this circle
We create infinity

So I wanna see a circle
A circle of unity
Cause it fills my heart with hope
Before it sets me free
Yeah I wanna see a circle

Before it sets me free
Cause it fills our heart with hope
Before it sets us free
I wanna see a circle, bitch
Cause I'm an old school motherfucker
Don't give the fucking shit

I wanna see a circle

So tell me what you believe
As life keeps on happening

Life's a circle
