

These Burning Memories

Boy Hits Car

I never felt so alone
Since coming home
Feels I got to be strong
'Cause now she is

Gone
Now she is gone
On account of this song!
'Cause now she is gone

Feel the sun rest on my back
If I turn will it's rays reflect
All the tears that have dried on my face
Coming home to an empty place

For I know that she's not there
But it seems that she's everywhere
Memories of a warm embrace
Filling my soul with heartache

So is she GONE for life?!
As her memory burns
It's burning inside
Feeling alive tonight

As her memory burns
It's burning inside
It's gonna be a dreadful night
To make the servant sleep

And there's a wonder born
A wonder born that's so deep
Who has to take away this pain
Tell me why I let this fragmenting

Memories of a warm embrace
Is lighting my silhouette with
So much heart ache
'Cause now she's Gone tonight!

But her memory burns
It's burning inside
Feeling alone for life
As her memory burns

Until I die
I'll be burning inside
I'm burning inside
I'm burning inside

I'm burning inside
I'm burning inside
Never felt so alone
Since I came back home

'Cause now she is gone
And I'm the one left here for

Life tonight
As a memory burns

It's burning inside
Feeling alive tonight
Until I die

I'll be burning inside
I'm burning inside
I'm burning inside
I'm burning inside

Burning inside
