

This Song For You

Boy Hits Car

i wish i could
stop your hurting
make it all good
but i'm so small
and insignifacant
and unable to deliver you from this pain oh-oh-oh
i wish i could
be your answer
i wish i was
everything you need
but i'm so lost
like a man being tossed upon life's sea
it gets the best of me-e-yeah guess all i can do is sing this song for you and try to be there when you cry maybe one day we'll end up free of this hurting and we can all live without this suffering that we've felt...
the strength you need to protect you
from the darkest lights but i'm simply
just a dreamer thinking i can make everything all right-yeah
guess all i can do is sing this song for you and try to be there when you cry-i
then we can all live without this sufferening that we have felt and i guess life is not so fair but a song can give us strength when we're feeling so helpless i guess all
i can do
all i can do
is sing
this song for you
you
for
you
you
you-ou-ou-ou
then we can all live without this suffering we have felt
