

Heart Heart Heartbreak

Boys Like Girls

Heartbreak... Heart heart heartbreak...

Girl don't say you love me when you're out the door
Woah yeah...
Cause I know things are different than they were before
Woah oh oh yeah...
You kill me with your kiss, it's so hard to resist you
and when you look me in the eyes tonight.

And say we're headed for a heart heart heartbreak
and I don't ever ever wanna hear you say
Don't say you love me, don't even,
don't say you love me, you're leaving.

I'm ready for a heart heart heartbreak
I'm gonna gonna turn around and walk away
Don't say you love me, don't even,
don't say you love me, you're leaving.

You said we'd stick it out through the thick and thin
Woah yeah...
But when the walls came down you wouldn't let me in Woah oh oh yeah...
We've been through it all,
My back's against the wall,
It's crashing down on me tonight.

And we're headed for a heart heart heartbreak,
and I don't ever ever wanna hear you say.
Don't say you love me, don't even,
don't say you love me, you're leaving.

I'm ready for a heart heart heartbreak,
I'm gonna gonna turn around and walk away.
Don't say you love me, don't even,
don't say you love me, you're leaving.

I'm sick and tired of this whole situation
Here comes another fight
Pin me down with the same conversation
no, don't say you love me tonight.

[guitar solo]

Heart heart heartbreak, break break break...

And we're headed for a heart heart heartbreak,
And I don't ever ever wanna hear you say.
Don't say you love me, don't even,
don't say you love me, you're leaving.

I'm ready for a heart heart heartbreak,
I'm gonna gonna turn around and walk away.
Don't say you love me, don't even,
don't say you love me, you're leaving.

We're headed for a heart heart heartbreak

And I don't ever ever wanna hear you say.
Don't say you love me, don't even
don't say you love me, you're leaving.
