

Serena Hides

Bracket

Serena Hides behind a face
That isn't really hers
She always tries a different way
To put time in reverse

I wonder what it is that she's hiding from
She's passed on all her friends
When will her crying end?
Her family wonders where she is.
Is she happy feelin' lonely now?

Serena Hides behind a mask
That she paints on herself.
The painted smile will never last
For undeserved will(?)

I wonder what it is that she's hiding from [Repeat Chorus]...

She puts a shell around her.
And colors her lies.
And then she'll start to wonder
About the disguise.
Will she ever find a way
To find a way out?

I wonder [Repeat Chorus]...
