

Dimorphism disregarded
Reality scorned

Dysphoria commended
Joyous to perform

You take center stage with a smile
As society begins to wrap around your script of distorted reality
Your plan is put into play:

Weaving a web of weakness
Producing practical powerlessness
Assessing amygdalar authority
Controlling and conquering community

Climbing the spinal vertebrae of your martyrs
Each disposable rung brings you farther
From the existential throne you crave
And soon, the ladder will give way

Insatiably ascending
With trampled corpses below,
Your hands futilely extending,
The sickening truth is bestowed

You live only if we permiss
