

Infinite Oblivion

Brain Drill

Time passes away
Light begins to fade
Darkness closes in on you
Energy begins to drain
A numbness sweeps over
No feelings of pain

Infinite Oblivion...

On your final resting place
Your body cannot mend
Remembrance of your existence
Anticipation of the end...

No longer able to move
Eyelids begin to close

Now death has consumed you
And nothingness is endless...

Erased, unaware

Forever into the nihilicity
No soul, just lifeless...

That ones life began

Returning to...

Infinite Oblivion...
