Brandtson

two of us sitting alone again in silence wondering what your eyes might see me as this time sometimes i wish you thought out loud it's so much different now and all along I never thought we were wrong you and i meeting again another circle better than nothing at all i'm glad we came sometimes i wish that we could change and make it past this som ehow

you said it once we were different from the start

what words could i say

were sitting and waiting in waiting rooms knowing the end can't come too soon i want you to understand my life (i wanted you to know and i wanted you to see and understand th is side of my life)
