

Unconditional Oceans

Brandy

Distraction curves, I took a turn and changed my view
Though I lost but earned
What I deserved is 'cause of you (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Why I'd rather suffer before I'd ever let you down?
I ain't ever scared to let the truth out
Oh, they won't ever lay me down

Where we going?
We diving in the ocean
The tidal winds blowing
The storm inside is growing
There's just something about you that keeps me floating
You see what's inside, broken, restored it
It's unconditional, these days you know
You are unconditional in every way, you lost
Love, you gave it to me
I'm blown away to a
A place where I don't wanna be found
And nobody knows I'm there

Distraction curves my wrists and nerves, suicide, ooh
Though I contemplate for heaven's sake to help us through (Yeah, yeah)
I know it's you
It be all about the timin'
Ain't just about my silver lining
I think it's way beyond the cloud

Where we going?
We diving in the ocean (Ocean)
The tidal winds blowing
The storm inside growing
There's just something about you that keeps me floating
You see what's inside, broken, restored it
It's unconditional, these days you know
You are unconditional in every way, you lost
Love, you gave it to me
I'm blown away to a
A place where I don't wanna be found
And nobody knows I'm there

Used to be a mess
Had no heart to heal
Was self-sabotaging, problem
Fear is my religion, never down
Wonder why you sent it to me
If you were just gonna ruin it
Jump, I'm falling upward, upward, upward

Where we going?
We diving in the ocean (Ocean)
The tidal winds blowing
The storm inside growing
There's just something about you that keeps me floating
You see what's inside, broken, restored it
It's unconditional, these days you know
You are unconditional in every way, you lost
Love, you gave it to me

I'm blown away to a
A place where I don't wanna be found
And nobody knows I'm there

So you can say my name, say my name
La-la-la-la-la-la-la
La-la-la-la-la-la-la
Da-da-da-da
La-la
