

Cryin' Tryin' Lyin'

Bratmobile

I can't take this anymore
Never thought you'd walk out the door
Cut your losses, you're going down
Cut my losses, I cut you down

Don't try
Don't lie
Don't cry
Don't

You know what I'll say to you
You're so young and it's so new
You don't know now, what to do
I've grown up, too, I've grown up

Don't try
Don't lie
Don't cry
Don't

You said that I give you nothing
But what do you offer me?
I never ask you for nothing
But just believe in me
I think you've learned a lot from me
Now what else can it be?
I try to give you everything
But this right it ain't free

I don't want to make you cry
I don't want to make you lie
You can't make me feel something
I can't make you feel it too

Don't try
Don't lie
Don't cry
Don't

You don't know, yet, what you want
You don't know now what you've got
Baby, I'll just set you free
Remember me
Just remember

Don't try
Don't lie
Don't cry
Don't

You said that I give you nothing
But what do you offer me?
I never ask you for nothing
But just believe in me
Now what else can it be?

I don't want to make you cry
