

Rather Stay Home

Brazzaville

Rather Stay Home

Crisscrossed the country in a van

A young and carefree rock and roll band

Tearing up the open road

Success came like an ice cold hand

5 star hotels by the sand

And suddenly you're getting old

And I'd rather stay home

I'd rather stay home

'Cause one thing I know

We all leave this old world alone

And why there's still time

Don't wanna be a rolling stone

And I'd rather stay home

I'd rather stay home

10,000 flights to different lands

And your kids are growing up without their dad

They're wondering why you can't stay home

Success came like an ice cold hand

5 star hotels by the sand

And suddenly you're getting old

chorus