

The Sweetest Romance

Breakbot

Looking for pleasure's, a waste of time
You seek a feeling that your sight won't find
So close your eyes and just, open your mind
Your ears can help you now, 'bout to go blind

Cause it's the sweetest romance
Music and dance
Cause it's the sweetest romance
Give it a chance

A record spinning, a glass of wine
And chills start running up and down my spine
The touch of your skin, at the touch of mine
Then we are spinning like the hands of time

Cause it's the sweetest romance
Music and dance
Cause it's the sweetest romance
Give it a chance

Cause it's the sweetest romance
Music and dance
Cause it's the sweetest romance
Give it a chance

Far away from yesterday
[?] dance, open a [?]
You decide to run away
[?]
Far away from all the feelings we know
Will I go
Will you go

When it's all over, will you be mine
[?] and a waste of time
Is it forbidden, is it a crime
Searching for that [?]

Cause it's the sweetest romance
Music and dance
Cause it's the sweetest romance
Give it a chance

Cause it's the sweetest romance
Music and dance
Cause it's the sweetest romance
Give it a chance

Sweetest romance
Music and dance
Cause it's the sweetest romance
Give it a chance
