Show Me A Sign

Breaking Point

Could you give me just some kind of sign To let me know that I'm not wasting my time I just need a reason to believe

I've lost all visibility, 'cause I can't see Just what you mean, by what you're telling me Should I stay or go, do you even know It's all a riddle to me

Show me a sign and give me reason to believe Don't waste my time, just give me some kind of sign Show me a sign and give me reason to believe Before this all just fades away.

Would you tell me cause I can't read your mind I'm so lost but it's not that hard to find I know exactly what you need

It's become quite evident, just what you meant I need to vent, well here's my two cents Don't leave me hanging on if you know its wrong It's all a riddle to me

Show me a sign and give me reason to believe Don't waste my time, just give me some kind of sign Show me a sign and give me reason to believe Before this all just fades away.

Give me just some kind of sign Cause I know that everything is changing And I feel like you always leave me hanging Don't leave me hanging on If you know its wrong
