

Coming Up

Brendan James

Out on the roof overlooking the bright lights of Brooklyn
Thinkin' 'bout what I could lose and what I should save I'll be the first one to say I was caught up in something
Something so bad it was wasting our good life away
And it really broke me down but it's getting better now
I'm coming up
Out of the wreckage
To show you this love is still good enough
It's there if you let it
I'm coming up
I hope you can see it
What held me down is leaving me now
Say you can feel it
Down to the courtyard below I decide to start walking
With the sun on my face and a light in my heart again
I get to your door and I stop just before knocking
I take a deep breath and I say "this is where we begin"
Yeah I'm feeling better now
I'm coming up
Out of the wreckage
To show you this love is still good enough
It's there if you let it
I'm coming up
I hope you can see it
What held me down is leaving me now
Say you can feel it
Try as you did, love, the course we were on was unsteady
Love's hard to do when one of the two falls apart
I'm coming up
Out of the wreckage
To show you this love is still good enough
It's there if you let it
I'm coming up
I hope you can see it
What held me down is leaving me now
Say you can feel it
Say you can feel it
