

Transformation

Brendan James

High in the highest peak
I reach for higher
The past is a memory
The future's brighter
The air is a biting cold
The wind is colder
I climb from the one I was
The worst is over

And we cannot be one or the other
Until the day we rise for another
And we cannot be blamed for the heartache
The serpent moves inside everybody

Climbing up the rocks atop the earth
Fighting for the chance to prove my worth
I am in a time of transformation
Rising with the fire of the sun
Waking up the one I will become
I am in a time of transformation

Safe in the calm of night
I watch the sky storm
For now it'll be alright
I'm rested and warm
But the fight that I fight within
Will never leave me
Until I can let it win
And let it teach me

And we cannot be one or the other
Until the day we rise for another
And we cannot be blamed for the heartache
The serpent moves inside everybody

Climbing up the rocks atop the earth
Fighting for the chance to prove my worth
I am in a time of transformation
Rising with the fire of the sun
Waking up the one I will become
I am in a time of transformation

I got a lifetime ahead
I know how far I've come
Always in transformation
I got a lifetime ahead
I know how far I've come
