Running like hell through the trees, No one pressuring me Younger days

Getting out after school Playing a bunch of fools Younger days

I see the sunset I see the stars
I see the future oh my god like a train approaching
It's coming for me

Slipping my Jordans on Playing some one on one Younger days

Telling my sister I hate her Knowing I'd never trade her Younger days

Oh these younger days
I'll take to my grave
For carving me out of a stone
Oh these younger days
I'll never replace
Oh if only I'd known

Hearing my fathers joys Cracking my mothers voice Younger voice

Filling my pockets with paper Smoking em deep in the woods Younger days

Oh these younger days
I'll take to my grave
For carving me out of a stone
Oh these younger days
I'll never replace
Oh if only I'd known

I see the sunset I see the stars I see the future Ohhh my god
