

Don't Say You Love Me

Brian Setzer

Don't say you love me
Then jump right out of bed
If I scream at the top of my lungs
It would only hurt my head
Because I know that you're nowhere near
And that's the last thing that I need to hear

Don't say you love me
But you need a little space
What good is that emotion
If I can't look you in the face
Being made a fool is my biggest fear
And that's the last thing that I need to hear

Don't write love letters
And start them out "Dear John"
Don't tell me not to leave you
When I'm already gone
And if it's true let me make it clear
That that's the last thing that I need to hear

Don't promise that you'll love me
Until the end of time
You say you'll deny me
But you're already mine
But it's up to you so don't shed a tear
Because you know damn well what I wanna hear
