

That Someone Just Ain't You

Brian Setzer

Someone new
Doing all the thing you used to do
But I know in my heart
That no one plays that part
'Cause that someone just ain't you

Someone new
About all the troubles
I've been though
And she tries to hold on
But my mind just wanders on
'Cause that someone just ain't you

Tried to forget you
Love doesn't let you
Leave all that heartache behind
Darling I need you
Don't, don't make me plead
For you to come back to my arms

Someone new
Wants to give me all she has
But I cry to myself
The whole night through
'Cause that someone just ain't you

Tried to forget you
Love just won't let you
Leave all that heartache behind
Darling I need you
Don't, don't make me plead
For you to come back to my arms

Someone new
Wants to give me all she has
But I cry to myself
The whole night through
'Cause that someone just ain't you
No, that someone just ain't you
