

I Ain't Coming Down

Bride

Where the body is the eagles will gather
Lift me up, give me your strength
To fly across the great divide
The promised land is on the other side

Once there was promise, now there is hope
Restore the righteous thirst of my soul
A river ran which touched both sides
Brought healing, restored the ground to the sky

I ain't coming down
I ain't coming down

I mounted wings from the bright morning star
Let the wind lift me from my feet
No resistance, nothing clouding my eye
No greater feeling than the freedom to fly

I ain't coming down
I ain't coming down

I look down in the valley below
With Your word be justified
I see a place where it never rains
Old footprints still remain

I ain't coming down
I ain't coming down
I ain't coming down
I ain't coming down
