

Wasting My Time

Bridge to Grace

Nobody will say I'm perfect
Even I can see I'm flawed
I feel like there was too much pressure
And deep inside you were lost
It's a long and lonely feeling
When this day comes to let you go
It hurts and makes believing
Seem like I've seen your ghost

Was I wasting my time?
Did I throw it all away?
How much harder could I try?
Would you have even stayed?

They say a teacher is a better student
A man is better off unhurt
But when a girl can make you feel she's worth it
Just for her to break your heart
It's a long and lonely feeling
When this day comes to let you go
It hurts and makes believing
Seem like I've seen your ghost

Was I wasting my time?
Did I throw it all away?
How much harder could I try?
Would you have even stayed?
Would you have even stayed?
