

Whatever I Am

Brighten

Put another log on the fire
I can feel the tremble in your skin
All the windows are howlin'
They're tryin' to let the cold in

Head rested on my shoulder
As I steal another kiss
Said, "Only you can make me love this weather."
From a whisper on your lips

I said, "Baby
I'll always be
Your cotton, your stone
Your grindin' wheel
Yeah, baby
Take all of me
Whatever I am
'Cause I'm yours
And I'll always be."

Just listen to the callin' of the railroad
I wonder where it's headed next
Baby, we could run away forever
Just our love along the tracks

'Cause baby
I'll always be
Your cotton, your stone
Your grindin' wheel
Yeah, baby
Take all of me
Whatever I am
'Cause I'm yours
And I'll always be
Always be

We could start a family by a river
Willows blowin' in the wind
And be the kind of people that you dreamed of
With love that never ends

'Cause whatever I am, I'm yours
Always be
