Marked And Tied

Brightwood

Heavy eyes at the wheel again Took me back in time The sound of your voice Now just white noise

Oh I tried, but I hate you tonight Apologies are made to please Marked and tied, welll lose this fight Tomorrow I resolve to go

Heavy chest every time I think it Forgiving you is easy But I tried to hold on Well IDm not that strong

Oh I tried, but I hate you tonight Apologies are made to please Marked and tied, welll lose this fight Tomorrow I resolve

Oh IDve tried to feel you tonight To find a reason to believe Marked and tied, weDre worth the fight Tomorrow I resolve to hope

Hold me tonight We were not meant to be alone
