

Water in Hell

Broken Social Scene

The newspaper ride is hanging like a thread
You're looking for your sailor boy
The music uncertainly, disconcertingly
You're looking for your sailor boy

From what I can tell
There's water in hell

The shuck and jive, the shuck and jive is over
The shuck and jive, the shuck and jive is over
The second time, the second time is over
It's too bad the monkey's on your shoulder

Well the truth be a lyin' stone cold messiah
It's time to let the cash roll in
This ain't the kind of man I want to defend
It's the year 2010

From what I can tell
There's water in hell

The shuck and jive, the shuck and jive is over
The shuck and jive, the shuck and jive is over
The second time, the second time got over
It's too bad the monkey's gone

No one likes to lose
No one likes to lose
No one likes to lose

There's water in hell
There's water in hell
There's water in hell
There's water in hell

There's water in hell
There's water in hell
There's water in hell
