

So Hard 2 Take

Brokencyde

I'm trying so hard To get you out of my mind

I tried so hard, until it was all over and done with My feelings were long gone, no longer hurt in my stomach
At first it was love kid, then turned into constant arguments
I tried my hardest to stop it, this bitching always started it
Taking advantage of my fragile heart, tore it apart Fixated on attraction, I should've known from the start Overpowered by hazel eyes, my mind paused for a minute Picturing love, there wasn't nothing that could block the image
My thoughts depended on her actions, her ways, her love Answered by the gods of lust, I prayed enough Embraced her trust, made no fuss and dreamed happily Day by day I noticed the pain increased rapidly In the dying sense I tried to forget it and let it pass But By doing this I forced a relationship that would never last
Every path was fabricated, all trust was gone Playing stupid as if I never knew what went wrong

I questioned my love for you
You're leaving me
You knew I can't handle this pain
Crying for you in this rain
Why won't you say you're sorry?
Turn around and come back home
I'm just so tired of being alone

I hate her, how many times haven't I said it?
I hate the fact that she hates me, and I shall never forget it Never had I ever fucked with her feelings, let her regret it
All of these years, lost into tears, that my letters presented
I still miss her, catch myself slitting my wrists
With the glass, I separated from the last picture reflect Together as one, wondering what I have done to take this Holding my pillow every night, wishing that she replaced it
Well fuck it, it's all over and done, feelings are gone
And I'm starting to get tired of love killing my songs
So that my arms and forgotten treats left in my shirt
I love you, shit I can't even say or remember the words Never concerning anything having to do with her past you ruined it last, quit hiding the truth in that mask Stupid ass, I'm ignoring the crap that you moaned
We had our time, until today I hope you're happy alone

I questioned my love for you

You're leaving me
You knew I can't handle this pain
Crying for you in this rain
Why won't you say you're sorry?
Turn around and come back home
I'm just so tired of being alone
