Brother Ali

Show promoter backstage pacin (Why is that?) He's tryin to take control of his situation He know damn well he ain't got the money I expect to have So I'm stuffin all the backstage in my record bag But that's what you get when you don't pay shit Cause I can't pay my rent on free water and chips And if free beer means payment is what you think BK drank one and Ali don't drink So produce the fetti, cheddar or whatever you call it Go get your dough split and come the hell up off it This is how I feed my family, so I'm not gonna forfeit And if that doesn't get it, I'm gonna go for your wallet Let me guess - the turnout wasn't quite what you expected Let me guess - somethin that the club owner did wrecked it Let me guess - it's hard to pack em in in this kind of weather And nobody wanna come and party after 9/11 That's not a MP, that's a YP - your problem You need to have this shit planned out before callin This is not a game to me, dog, you stealin from my family You just gon' have to understand me Backstage pacin
