

Please Don't Wait

Bruce Kulick

I won't lie, I will tell the truth tonight
You gave me, a love that embraced me

Satisfaction, I need
But my reaction, isn't always what it should be

I've been looking, for a reason
To believe in, all these feelings
And when I find it, I won't deny it
But please don't wait, please don't wait for my heart

I'll hold on, if only for this moment
It's all we've got
And you and I both know it
Indecision, you cry
Is my position, but you know that I'll never lie
