

Dirty Mind

Buckcherry

If I told you once, ill tell you again
Ive had it with your dirty, fucking, mind

I messed about in the night and found some shelter
Walk along till you find it injected in your hand
I told the truth, dry vermouthe, the crap your inhaling
Im gonna die in your mind and find a dirty fucking place to lay, yeah

Yeah

Im gonna die in your dirty mind
Norma Jean did you find your way, tell me love do you 'member
Im gonna die in your dirty fucking mind
When someone come and took your love away, yeah, alright

Hey, hey, hey, hey, yeah
Hey, hey, hey, hey

Take your time, all is lost and whats there to handle?
It wasn't gone, you were down, the directions in your hand
Ive fallen down, in the park, the knife in your backside
Gonna die in your mind and find a dirty fucking place to lie yeah

Yeah

Im gonna die in your dirty mind
Norma Jean did you find your way, tell me love do you 'member
Im gonna die in your dirty fucking mind
When someone come and took your love away, yeah, alright

I saw your old lady in a porno mag
In a porno mag, yeah

Morning glory spent my check, Im still not wasted
And I don't have one bit of faith, yeah
It happened a long time ago, the birth of my will
I celebrate your life today, I celebrate your life today

Yeah

Im gonna die in your dirty mind
Norma Jean did you find your way, tell me love do you 'member
Im gonna die in your dirty fucking mind
When someone come and took your love away, yeah, alright
Im gonna die in your dirty mind
Norma Jean did you find your way, tell me love do you 'member
Im gonna die in your dirty fucking mind
When someone come and took your love away, yeah, alright
I celebrate your life today
