Bucks Fizz

I'm sitting in this jungle
But the help is on its way
'Cause I'm sending up a letter today
I hope to get an answer
But the chance is very small
So I'm crossing off the moments on the wall
Not happy at all the time I'm wasting
Just waiting, my message

It must be censored
I'm feeling the chances as they fall
I was hoping I'd back home again
But now its gone I'm sure it's all been censored
Where are the friends that I had before?
I thought they were just ignoring me
But now its gone I can't go on being
Censored

I thought I had the address
But I may have got it wrong
Now it seems I had the number all along
Someone's having me on
I know I sent it, I meant it, they bent it

It must be censored
I'm feeling the chances as they fall
I was hoping I'd back home again
But now its gone I'm sure it's all been censored
Where are the friends that I had before?
I thought they were just ignoring me
But now its gone I can't go on being
Censored

No
No more loving for you
I've been censored
No more giving
I've been censored
No more living

It's like I been censored
I'm feeling the chances as they fall
I was hoping I'd back home again
But now its gone I'm sure it's all been censored
Where are the friends that I had before?
I thought they were just ignoring me
But now its gone I can't go on being
Censored

I'm feeling it, I'm losing it, censored
