

I Used To Love The Radio

Bucks Fizz

We can't go near the water
And nothing seems to grow
But there's static on the radio
There's static on the radio

My life here ain't that easy
But I really can't complain
If you and I are all that still remain
Thought I was last man alive
But I don't let it get me down
Someone pushed the button down

One morning, no warning
Somebody, somebody
Not thinking, said "what's new?"
Oh, oh, oh...
No more me, no more you

I used to watch the sunrise
And wake up to the news
I used to love the radio
I used to love the radio

But I've got you to talk to
I'll never be alone
Don't know what you got until it's gone
I used to be civilised
And nothing ever got me down
'Til someone pushed the button down

One morning, no warning
Somebody, somewhere
Got thinking, said "what's new?"
Oh, oh, oh...
No more me, no more you

I used to love the radio

Static on the radio
(No more me)
I used to love the radio
I used to-used to love
(No more you)
Static on the radio
(No more me)
I used to love the radio
I used to-used to love

One morning, no warning
Somebody, somewhere
Not thinking said "what's new?"
Oh, oh, oh...

I used to love the radio (Oh, oh, oh...)
Ra-di-o
I used to love the radio (Oh, oh, oh...)
Ra-di-o...
