Idyll and romance Forget forever A regular life We won't lead never!

Don't feel regret When girls give me a shit Don't like their feelings We do like their sin!

Slobbering and dreaming Don't know what they mean Fire and rage Inside us scream!

We'll never be quite Our mood is in flames Nightmares all night!

We'll never cheat our maniac friends We play for the witches as they do command

Don't fear to be a loser Damnation we gained Pride is high And hare has remained!

We try to avoid The spirit's collapse As bands used to do We never relax!

Hitches won't take us
We are not going to trust
The chicks and the faires
We do feel disgust

Hell is so near
Dark is our soul
Like demons and witches
We do reach our goal
