

Hang Yourself In Shame

Buried Alive

Hang yourself in shame, the verdict falls on you.

Ive heard you're cries of revolt and rage
I belived and fought for life and change
Material lust, and material gains dragged you away
Now you choke on every fucking word you say
Every word you say
And I will never , ever fucking be like you
Can you live with yourself. Shallow glass
Can you live with yourself. collapsing past

You're the one that i despise.

Now hang yourself in shame.
